

KLOVE is a very important part of my family's everyday life. KLOVE's ministry gives my children the education of Jesus that they don't receive in school anymore. It gives me the uplifting I need day to day also. My family and I would be devastated to lose this radio station. We support it financially in hopes that it ministers to the millions of people that need it. If it saves just one it is worth keeping it on the air.